SPECIAL HEARINGS:

ITEM-601: In the Matter of an Extension of Time, to May 1, 2004, of the Good Faith Negotiating Period Set Forth in the 1995 Agreement for Partial Use and Occupancy of San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium between the San Diego Chargers and the City of San Diego.

(Mission Valley and Serra Mesa Community Areas. District-6.)

CITY ATTORNEY'S RECOMMENDATION:

Adopt the following resolution:

(R-2004-207)

Authorizing and directing the City Manager to execute the Supplement Number Four to the Agreement.

SUPPORTING INFORMATION:

Under the terms of the 1995 Agreement for the Partial Use and Occupancy of Qualcomm Stadium, the San Diego Chargers delivered to the City a "Renegotiation Notice" on March 4, 2003. The delivery of that notice commenced a 90-day period during which the City and Chargers are required to negotiate in good faith regarding certain terms of the 1995 Agreement. The initial 90-day negotiating period was to expire on June 2.

On March 18, 2003, the City Council adopted Resolution R-297734 which directed a City negotiating team to meet with the Chargers pursuant to the delivery of the Renegotiation Notice and pursuant to the recommendations set forth in the final report from the Citizens Task Force on Chargers Issues. On May 19, 2003, the City Council adopted Resolution R-297734, which authorized the City Manager to execute the Supplement Number Three to the 1995 Agreement, extending the good faith negotiating period to August 31, 2003. The respective negotiating teams have been meeting regularly, but a mutually acceptable agreement has not yet been reached.

The proposed Supplement Number Four would extend the good faith negotiating period to and including May 1, 2004. The proposed Supplement Number Four does not affect the City's rights under the 1995 Agreement, including any and all rights to contest the validity of the Renegotiation Notice, or other issues the City may wish to address.
